GOOD TASTE NEVER GOES OUT OF STYLE

Every time new pieces are added to our luxury collection I am really excited. This time we are introducing a new product line to offer an even more complete collection: bathroom accessories inspired by original ornaments from the Ritz Hotel in Paris (see pages 136-137).

Furthermore you will find more than 600 brand new items in this magazine, that have been included in our permanent collection. Among my personal favourites are the Monkey Stool (page 41), the Florence Series (page 60-61) and the Hildebrandt Chandelier (page 115).

This magazine is a special addition to the Eichholtz Furniture & Accessories Collection Book and the Eichholtz Lighting Collection Book, which give an overview of our entire collection of opulent interior pieces.

As you may know, impeccable craftsmanship is of paramount importance to us. By adapting traditional crafts to modern demands, our products exceed the highest standards in design and durability. Good taste and quality never go out of style.

Personalise your home with our sumptuous interior pieces. Whether prefer extravagance or austerity, I am sure you will find one or more items of your liking among our latest arrivals. All products are immediately available from stock, so you can order right away.

TABLE DRUMS

Drum-shaped ceramic stools are versatile home accessories. They perfectly serve as small side tables or plant stands while adding colour and luster to your décor. With their timeless look these decorative objects complement almost any interior style. In China ceramic drums have been in use for over 1,000 years, as outdoor furniture. They probably stem from the Buddhist garden tradition in which natural elements like tree stumps were used to sit on.

Natural beauty

Grains, knots and natural beauty grant a unique appearance to each Eichholtz coffee table with a petrified wood tabletop. Characterised by natural black, brown, grey and white tones, these distinctive coffee tables are suitable for a variety of interior styles and colour schemes.

Petrified wood literally means: wood turned into stone. Trees that have been buried under sediment for many years can transform into stone. While retaining the original structure of the stem tissue, all the organic materials are replaced with minerals.

Inviting veneer

Give your décor mid-century modern appeal with the stunning veneered Melchior dining tables. Danish teak furniture pieces from the 1950s that are still in perfect shape are crafted with veneer, which proves the quality and durability of well-made veneered furniture.

Veneer comprises thin slices of wood that are glued onto solid panels. Each slice features a distinctive type of grain, depending upon the tree species that is used. As the herringbone pattern of the brown Melchior dining table shows, veneers are also very suitable for marquetry.

The art of veneering dates back to ancient Egypt, where sarcophagi were manufactured with rare and costly wood veneers. High-quality veneer lasts longer than solid wood which warps or cracks over time. That's why veneered work was also very popular in the Roman Empire.

Futuristic design

Inspired by futuristic designer lighting from the 1960s, the Spiridon series radiates retro appeal. Each lampshade is formed by two half spheres from white glass with an open space in between. The fixture features a sophisticated antique brass finish. For the most beautiful light we recommend the LED Fridge Bulb 3W E14 that comes in a set of four.

NATURAL LUXURY

Grant tropical opulence to your interior with the Pineapple series. These delightful decorative objects will instantly spruce up your living space. There's nothing more vitalising and inspiring than nature. That's why floral, botanical and tropical designs are extremely loved by interior designers.

Key features of the botanical trend are vibrant colours, big leaves, exotic flowers and wild animals. Split-leaf Philodendrons and pineapples are popular in tropical design schemes. Integrate both into your decor for a fresh and lively style.
